

PGA Professional - Advert

Brough Golf Club invite applications for the position of Head Professional due to the imminent retirement of our long serving professional.

Applicants must have previous experience in providing high quality golf services and of working in, or managing a retail environment, preferably within the golf industry. The successful candidate must be a self-motivated high achiever with excellent interpersonal and organisational skills.

Effective communication and presentation skills are essential as the role requires working closely across all departments of the golf club. With an overall focus on excellent customer service, the candidate should be a logical thinker capable of paying attention to detail. IT literacy and good numeracy skills are essential.

Key responsibilities include: -

- Establishing and operating a well-stocked, attractive shop to meet the needs of members and visitors.
- To develop tuition programs and deliver high quality individual and group coaching to members, juniors, guests, and other interested parties.
- Proactively working in the attraction of visitors and the retention/recruitment of club members.
- Working closely with General Manager/Board of Directors on strategies covering all aspects of golf operations Inc. sales and marketing and income generation.
- To work with the General Manager to deliver a high standard of support in golf operations, including organising and running tournaments, monitoring tee sheet activity and handicapping records.
- Maintain a high level of appropriate personal and Professional development (CPD) reflective of current responsibilities.

For more information, and to request an information pack, please email Richard Jagger at manager@brough-golfclub.co.uk

Closing date for applications, Monday 31st August 2018